I still have connections from my old days as Communications Director and I was asked by Time Warner Cable's Local Edition, airing on CNN Headline News (HLN) , if I had an organization or individual in our community who have gone above and beyond the call of duty.

I want to nominate the you, the Westchester BID, for all your hard work. This is a great chance to get your message out on the airwaves and tell the world about all the great things you plan on doing

Are you interested?

Please let me know ASAP and I will book a 30 minute interview for you for Friday, October 8th

Also, please let me know who you want to do the interview...need to know ASAP
